

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

OUR FUTURE: AACHWA Aboriginal Arts Worker Training Program is a unique opportunity to be involved in a tailored program for community-based arts workers. Selected participants will go behind the scenes and participate in learning activities at some of Perth's major arts and culture institutes.

Art Centres that are not AACHWA members are welcome to submit nomination/s for arts workers, however during the selection process, preference will be given to AACHWA members.*

What is the program?

In partnership with the Western Australian Museum (WAM), Art Gallery of Western Australia (AGWA), North Metropolitan TAFE (NMT) and North Regional TAFE (NRT), AACHWA will host 5 Aboriginal arts workers in Perth from 18 March 2024 to 27 March 2024 and at a regional art centre in August 2024. This is an accredited training program.

The tailored program will include a variety of learning opportunities & exclusive experiences including:

- Tours and educational activities WA Museum and Art Gallery of WA
- Tailored tutorials onsite at North Metropolitan TAFE
- Behind the scenes tours of a range of cultural collections throughout Perth
- Networking and creative development

Travel, accommodation, and meals will be covered for the duration of the program. Literacy and numeracy support will be provided (if required) throughout the program. All training and enrolment costs will be covered by AACHWA.

Selection process

AACHWA will undertake a selection process based on submitted information, to identify 5 arts workers for this program. This is a competitive process and unfortunately, we will not be able to accept every nomination.

Participants will be required to commit themselves to this intensive learning experience and attend two separate residential training blocks; March 2024 in Perth and August 2024 in Newman.

Successful candidates will need to show that they:

- have worked with an art centre or in an arts related field for at least 6 months
- show engagement with exhibition development/curating, art installation or pursuing professional development in the arts
- can travel during March 2024 and August 2024
- can commit to the full program of events, including the one and a half weeks in Perth, as well as the 2nd training block run at a regionally based art centre for 5 days in August 2024 (exact dates TBC, this will be in Newman, hosted by Martumili Artists)

How To Apply

- AACHWA member arts centres are invited to nominate participant/s to be considered for this training opportunity.
