

Our Future

Aboriginal Arts Worker Training Program

November 2025 | Arts Worker Bios

Alysha Taylor

Martumili Artists

Alysha is a Martumili Officer and Artist born in Broome. She grew up between Parnngurr and Bidydanga, with her mother's side of the family based in Broome and her father's side based in Parnngurr. She also undertook her education in these two Communities and Port Headland, prior to moving to Perth and completing her education at Mirrabooka Senior High School.

Alysha spent her childhood learning to paint from her grandmother [K. Taylor (dec)] and grandfather [W. Taylor (dec)] and has been painting with Martumili Artists since 2017.

As well as this, Alysha as a longstanding Martumili Officer, supporting the daily operations of the Arts Centre. She has been working in this role for 8 years, during which she has supported the Martumili Punjiman Project (2017-2018), and worked as a peer mentor for the AACHWA Arts Worker Training Program in 2023 among many other things.

Alysha completed the first part of the Our Future training in August 2025 and will complete the Our Future training program in November 2025.

